

A UNO Center Austria Ten Year Anniversary Conference with the Eisenhower Center for American Studies
in Cooperation with the Ludwig Boltzmann-Institute for Research on War Consequences Graz, Austria

Marshallplan-Jubiläumsstiftung
Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation

SEE THE WORLD with The Division of International Education

www.centeraustria.org

austrian cultural forum ^{inc}

Friday, April 4, 2008

9 – 12 pm Session III

The Great Powers and the Year of Crisis 1968

Chair: Allan Millett, Eisenhower Center, University of New Orleans

Mark Carson, Tulane University
The Johnson Administration, the Vietnam War, and the South's Response to the Vietnam War

Günter Bischof, University of New Orleans
The Johnson Administration's Response to the Czech Crisis of 1968

Saki Dockrill, Kings College, University of London
Great Britain and the Prague Spring

Alessandro Brogi, University of Arkansas-Fayetteville
France, Italy the Western Communists, and the Prague Spring

10:30 – 11 am Coffee Break

12:30 – 2:30 pm Lunch Break

1:30 Public Reading (in German)

Chair: Inge Fink, UNO

by Zdenka Becker from her novel Die Töchter der Róza Bukovská
(Residenz Verlag 2006)
writer in residence, Lafayette College

2:30 – 5:30 pm Session IV

European Neighbors during
the Prague Spring

Chair: Peter Ruggenthaler, Institute for Research on War Consequences, Graz

Csaba Békés, Institute for the History of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution, Budapest
Hungary and the Prague Spring

Tvrtko Jakovina, University of Zagreb, Croatia
Tito, the Block Free Movement and the Prague Spring

Stefan Karner, Ludwig Boltzmann-Institute for Research on War
Consequences Graz
Austria and the Prague Spring